If such travel is required and subsequently authorized, SwiftComply's standard travel and per diem rates shall apply. In the event the Receiving Party is required by law and/or a valid court order or subpoena to disclose any portion of Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party, such disclosure shall not be a breach of this Agreement provided that the Receiving Party gives the Disclosing Party prior written notice of such disclosure requirement, cooperates fully with the Disclosing Party in seeking to obtain confidential treatment for such disclosure and to minimize the extent of such disclosure, and discloses only that portion of the Confidential Information that the Receiving Party is legally required to disclose.

The Parties recognize that the disclosure or use of a Disclosing Party's Confidential Information by the Receiving Party in violation of the provisions of this Section 10 may cause irreparable injury to the Disclosing Party; therefore, in the event either Party breaches the provisions of this Section 10, the other Party, in addition to any other remedies it may have, shall be entitled to seek preliminary and permanent injunctive relief without the necessity of posting a bond.
